A big thank you to everyone who participated in our Shoebox appeal. Over 100 boxes were sent from church members, their friends and family and from Little Rainbows along with a donation of £30 to Operation Christmas Child.

The December Offering is for the work in JAM TRUST led by our own brother Nagy Iskander. 2018 was once again a busy year with many opportunities to share the gospel in and around East Kilbride. The JAM club continues to meet regularly at Stewartfield Community Centre, and the annual summer outreach was again held at the James Hamilton Heritage Park during July with good attendances, especially from children.

In March about 2500 Easter CD-ROMs were distributed in Glasgow via the vendors of the Evening Times newspaper and it is planned repeat this next year. Nagy still gets requests from individuals and groups throughout the country for both the Christmas and Easter CD-ROMs and is happy to send them out. Last Christmas the JAM Trust built the full sized Nativity scene in the food court at EK shopping centre and permission has been given again to proclaim the true meaning of Christmas. The JAM shop also in EK Town Centre is open on alternate Friday nights throughout the year with a special once a month 'Praise and Testimony night' which attracts some visitors. Nagy and his fellow workers are thankful for God for these opportunities and for our support.

Christmas Festival 15 December
11.00am - 2.00pm

Come and support this event when all proceeds will go to East Kilbride Ambulance Service. This is an ideal opportunity to invite family and friends to come and have some food, chat and see what other surprises are planned. There will be a puppet show at 12.15pm. Donations of home baking and help would be greatly appreciated. Please speak to Eve Miller or Louise Hooper. Please plan to be there !!!
